

RECEIVE IT Who outside this house spent something on me that they couldn't get back this year?

Anyone who showed up for you gave something up to be there.

Start from your map: look for everything marked , and ask what it cost. Finish the sentence as many times as you like.

"Instead of going home after her shift, my coworker stayed to teach me the system." If the list is short, ask who has driven you somewhere, fixed something, or waited for you.

1 Instead of _____ ,
 _____ who _____ what they did for me
 What it cost them: ☐ time ☐ money ☐ energy ☐ attention ☐ Make it a leaf

2 Instead of _____ ,

 What it cost them: ☐ time ☐ money ☐ energy ☐ attention ☐ Make it a leaf

5 Instead of _____ ,
 _____ who _____ what they did for me
 What it cost them: ☐ time ☐ money ☐ energy ☐ attention ☐ Make it a leaf

What the kids said. Ask, "Who gave up something to help you this year?" Write it the way they say it.

Photo hunt: People outside your house in a moment of giving. Screenshots of messages count. Add them to the Thankful Album.
